4. I consent to and authorize Fifth Season to conduct public record searches and background searches regarding myself including for purposes of insurance antifraud activity, and as necessary or required by Fifth Season to effect, administer or enforce the transaction contemplated by this application.

I understand that I should speak to my insurance company, insurance agent or financial planner with regard to other options available to me my under my Policy.
6. I understand that Fifth Season does not provide legal, tax or financial advice. As each individual situation is different, Fifth Season recommends that I speak with a legal, tax and/or estate planning advisor, concerning the merits of entering into an Advance and the tax consequences an Advance may have to me, my estate and/or heirs, including the potential tax consequences of debt forgiveness, if any.
7. One of the eligibility criteria to qualify for an Advance is for the Applicant to have a diagnosis of an advanced stage illness and a life insurance policy. I have been diagnosed as indicated above, have an existing life insurance policy and understand that not every individual living with an advanced stage illness or life insurance policy will qualify for an Advance.
8. I agree and consent to Fifth Season and its successors or assigns reproducing and transferring my signature in electronic form from the 'Authorization for Disclosure of Protected Health Information HIPAA Compliant' form or any other document signed by me to a HIPAA/Medical Release form mandated by a health care provider or facility holding any of my medical records, solely for purposes of obtaining such medical records from such health care provider or facility.

We look forward to helping you!

THE FUNDS FOR LIVING PROGRAM

Question: How does the Funds for Living Program work?

Answer: Fifth Season has pioneered an innovative financial solution for individuals with advanced stage illnesses, utilizing an asset that many own but don't realize they can access for cash: their life insurance policy. Fifth Season will review your existing life insurance policy and determine if it can be used as collateral for an advance. Concurrently, our consulting oncologists and physicians will confidentially review your medical records to assess your medical status. If you qualify, Fifth Season will offer you immediate funds, and will take over premium payments for your policy. We'll forward a detailed breakdown on how the advance is ultimately repaid, which does not need to occur in your lifetime.

Question: How is the amount of the advance determined?

Answer: The amount of the advance is based on several factors, including:

- The projected life expectancy of the insured
- The net death benefit of the life insurance policy
- The projected amount of remaining life insurance policy premium payments
- The type of policy and specific life insurance company

Once Fifth Season considers all factors, the advance you may receive is generally between 20 and 70 percent of the policy's death benefit.

Question: Are there any restrictions on how I use the proceeds of my advance?

Answer: No – there are no restrictions on how you use the funds advanced to you. The money is yours to use as you wish.

Question: How will I repay the advance?

Answer: All advances, interest, origination fees and premium payments are repaid to Fifth Season out of the life insurance policy's death benefit. After that, all surplus funds are paid to your designated beneficiaries.

Question: How long does the process take?

Answer: There are several stages to the process. Generally, Fifth Season can provide you with a formal offer letter within three days of receiving a complete set of medical records and a verification of the eligibility of your life insurance policy (NOTE: our internal team will help assemble these for you with your approval). Once you accept the offer, we will need to change the life insurance policy's ownership and beneficiary status to Fifth Season (or, in some cases, collaterally assign the policy to Fifth Season). This part of the process can take up to four weeks. Once confirmation is received from the life insurance carrier, we can generally advance funds within 48 hours.

Question: How will I receive my advance?

Answer: Once approved and processed, you will receive your advance in one lump sum either by check or direct wire transfer to your bank account.

Question: Who pays the premiums on my life insurance policy?

Answer: Fifth Season is responsible for paying all remaining premiums on the life insurance policy. The premiums paid by Fifth Season will be added to the principal balance of the advance. In some cases, the terms of the insurance policy do not allow Fifth Season to pay premiums directly, in which case Fifth Season will reimburse the premium amount paid by the insured.

Question: Are there fees associated with the advance?

Answer: There are no application fees or out of pocket expenses with the Funds for Living Program. If you accept the proposal, a management fee as specified in your proposal document will be added to your balance. This fee will vary based on your state of residence and other factors but is generally 3% of the face amount. Interest is charged on the loan at the rate specified in your contract, but (like the management fee) it can vary based on state regulations. Along with premium payments, the management fee and interest are repaid entirely out of the life insurance death benefit, so there are no out-of-pocket costs to the insured.

Question: Will I have to pay taxes on the advance?

Answer: The funds advanced under the program are generally not taxable. However, since each individual situation is unique, and Fifth Season does not provide tax, legal or financial advice, we recommend you speak with your legal, tax or estate planning advisor.

Question: What happens to my life insurance policy proceeds?

Answer: In order for Fifth Season to simplify the payment of your policy premiums and maintenance of your life insurance policy, the policy is transferred or collaterally assigned to Fifth Season. When the life insurance policy matures, the insurance carrier will pay the policy death benefit to Fifth Season (in most cases). Fifth Season will then use those proceeds to repay the outstanding balance and will return any surplus proceeds to your designated beneficiary. Should the amount owed ever exceed the outstanding balance, neither you nor your family are responsible to repay any shortfall on the advance.

Question: Can I choose to pay back my advance early?

Answer: Yes. If your financial situation changes, you can choose to pay back your advance (and costs incurred during the period, like premiums and management fees) at any time without any prepayment penalties to retain your full death benefit.

PRIVACYQuestion: Who will have access to my medical information?

Answer: All information concerning your medical condition will remain strictly confidential. Access to your medical information is strictly controlled and limited to Fifth Season employees, consulting oncologists and physicians, other Fifth Season advisors who are subject to confidentiality obligations, and those other persons specified in the Confidentiality Agreement. Fifth Season is fully compliant with HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act) regulations and standards, and is committed to protecting your privacy.

QUALIFICATION

Question: Do I qualify for the Funds for Living Program?

Answer: Once an application is submitted, we consider a number of different factors to determine if you qualify, but there are three key requirements:

- You have been diagnosed with a life-threatening or advanced stage illness, such as a late-stage (Stage III or IV) cancer (generally with distant metastasis)
- You own a life insurance policy with a total death benefit of at least $75,000, issued by a U.S.-based life insurance company
- You are a permanent resident of the United States

Question: What types of life insurance policies will Fifth Season accept?

Answer: We can accept individual, group and employer-provided term or whole life insurance policies, and no cash surrender value is required. There are several requirements for eligibility, including:

- Your life insurance policy must be issued by a U.S.-based life insurance company
- Your policy must be transferable or collaterally assignable to Fifth Season
- Your policy must have been issued at least two years ago
- You must have one or more life insurance policies with a total death benefit of at least $75,000
- If you have a group life insurance policy, the total death benefit must be at least $200,000

Question: If I'm unemployed or don't have a good credit rating, can I still qualify?

Answer: Your credit rating, repayment ability and employment status are not factors we consider. Your medical history and the details of your life insurance policy are the primary factors for consideration.

Question: What if my medical status changes?

Answer: If you encounter a more rapid disease progression, it may be possible to increase the advance amount upon re-evaluation. Should your medical condition unexpectedly improve or stabilize, your obligations and Fifth Season's obligations do not change.
